In your own words

Which words describe your personality and character?

A lifelong learner with a curious mind, I am constantly seeking out new knowledge and experiences. My appetite for learning extends across a wide spectrum of topics, from the intricacies of science to the nuances of human behavior.

Which sports do you like to participate in?

I love playing badminton. And sometimes I like to ice skating although I'm not very good at it.

Which sports did you play as a child?

I played badminton.

Which sports do you enjoy watching?

I love watching figure skating and curling.

Do you play any musical instruments?

I play piano and saxophone.

What is your most memorable childhood experience?

My childhood memories are intertwined with the aroma of Grandma's cooking. Grandma's cooking wasn't just sustenance; it was a love language, each dish a tangible expression of her affection.

To which countries have you traveled?

I love travel and so far, I've travelled to S. Korea, Japan, Singapore, Mexico, Canada, Italy, Spain and Caribbean states by cruise.

Describe one of your favorite vacations to another country:

In Singapore, I wandered through the lush greenery of Gardens by the Bay, marveled at the architectural marvels of Marina Bay Sands, and savored the diverse flavors of hawker centers. I embraced the unfamiliar, navigating cities with confidence and striking up conversations with locals along the way. Each destination unfolded a unique tapestry of experiences, shaping my perspective and fostering a deep appreciation for cultural diversity.

In your own words

Describe a few of your strong sides:

I'm a fast learner, always picking up new things and figuring out how to use them. And no matter what challenges I face, I never give up. I keep pushing through until I reach my goals. It's this combination of quick learning and perseverance that makes me a success. I'm always looking for new knowledge and skills, and I'm not afraid to take on tough challenges. I know that with hard work and determination, I can achieve anything I set my mind to.

Describe a few of your weak sides:

I have a tendency to get so caught up in the big picture that I sometimes overlook the finer points. While this can lead to me missing out on important details, it also allows me to think creatively and come up with innovative solutions. I'm working on developing my ability to focus on the details without losing sight of the bigger picture. I believe that by striking a balance between these two approaches, I can become an even more effective problem solver.

Personal characteristics

What is your native language?

Mandarin

What other languages do you speak?

English

Math Skills/Ability:

Math is my love. I scored 146/150 in Chinese College Entrance Exam which helped me to rank 300 out of 410,000 students in my province. I also have MS in computer science and PhD in geophysics which involves a lot of Math.

Mechanical Skills:

I don't have specific mechanical skills except regular housing maintenance work..

I can play piano, Saxophone and a Chinese traditional instrument Hulusi. But I only play them for fun

Do you like animals? If so, which is your favorite?

I love cats.

To where would you like to travel and why?

I've been travelled to 10+ countries by far. In US, I've visited 40 different states and 30+ national parks. So for my next destination, I want to go to somewhere brand new to me. It could be Antarctica, space or even Moon (hopefully I can do it in my life.)

Personal characteristics

How would you describe your personality?

I love reading and love to learn and know everything in (literally) our Universe, from Wormhole, to Snowball Earth Event happened billions of years ago to some interesting stories in 15th centuries Kazakh steppe. I love to share with my friends as well. I'm inclined to be perfectionism and willing to spend extra time to make my work done in an exceptional way. But I do trade off and prioritize multiple tasks. I prefer to have backup solutions and always think about + plan things that could happen in the future. I was talkative when I was a teenager and love to present in front of public. But now, I become more conservative about that.

What is your ultimate ambition or goal in life and how do you see yourself in twenty years?

I'm a software engineer manager which I spend most of time coding and meeting at this moment, I still have one dream which I had when I was a kid. I'd live to travel to all countries in the world and even beyond. I hope I can have enough money to retire in twenty years and start a new adventure to try something new, it could be a space travel or writing books about stories in history.

Donor essay

Why do you want to be a donor?

My friend is a fertility doctor, and they have told me many stories about how families are struggling to have a child. Their stories have really touched me, and they have made me determined to become a sperm donor. As a dad of a young kid, I know how much it means to have a child, and I want to give that gift to people who are struggling to conceive on their own. I know that I can make a difference in the lives of others, and I am excited to do so. As a father, I understand the immense responsibility and joy that parenthood brings which I want to share with any potential recipient. Parenthood is a lifelong commitment that should not be taken lightly. It is a journey filled with both challenges and rewards, and it requires unwavering love, patience, and resilience. Before embarking on this extraordinary adventure, carefully consider the implications and ensure you are ready to embrace the joys and hardships that parenthood brings. It's a decision that shouldn't be taken lightly, as it will forever alter the course of your life. Be prepared for sleepless nights, endless diaper changes, and countless moments of uncertainty.

Describe your relationship with your family. How has your family shaped your values and who you are today?

I love my family. The unwavering support and love of my parents has been the cornerstone of my life, shaping my values, fostering my curiosity, and nurturing my passion for exploration. Their open-mindedness and belief in my potential have instilled in me a sense of confidence and a willingness to embrace the unfamiliar. Their belief in my potential has instilled in me a sense of purpose, a desire to make a positive impact on the world, and a commitment to sharing my experiences and insights with others.

What makes you unique?

What makes you unique? Everyone is unique and for me, growing up between the vibrant cultural landscapes of China and the United States has been an extraordinary privilege, shaping my worldview in profound ways. My diverse background has not only enriched my understanding of the world but has also fueled my passion for exploration. I've been fortunate to delve into various fields of study, from the intricacies of science to the nuances of history. Each exploration has opened new doors to understanding, broadening my horizons and challenging my assumptions. This pursuit of knowledge has become an integral part of my identity, a driving force in my personal growth. My diverse background and passion for exploration have shaped me into a person who is open-minded, adaptable, and eager to learn. I embrace the challenges and rewards that come with navigating a world of diverse perspectives, believing that true understanding can only be achieved through empathy, curiosity, and a willingness to step outside one's comfort zone.

What are you most proud of and why?

The ability to learn quickly is a powerful tool that has always been a source of pride for me. It has allowed me to grasp new concepts with ease, adapt to new environments with agility, and excel in various academic and professional pursuits. This quick learning aptitude has been a key factor in my success, enabling me to absorb information like a sponge and apply it effectively to solve problems and achieve my goals. Perseverance is another quality that I hold close to my heart. It is the unwavering determination that has propelled me forward, helping me to overcome obstacles, persevere through challenges, and achieve my aspirations. I have never been one to shy away from a hurdle; instead, I embrace them as opportunities for growth and development. This unwavering resolve has served me well in all aspects of my life, from my academic endeavors to my personal endeavors.
