Handwritten message

I am honored to share a part for you in creating the greatest gift in the world, having a child. I am very passionate that any person who wants to be a parent is given the opportunity to be and I am happy to help parents that go a different route into making that a possibility.

I personally want to assure you that I take the responsibility of donating very seriously and keep my body in good health. For this reason, I do not smoke and very rarely drink alcohol. I also try my best to eat a healthy and balanced diet.

Should you be successful in contraception with the donation, my only request, if I may, is that you love the child unconditionally! Just as my parents did with me and how I plan to with a family of my own someday.

I wish you the best of luck on this journey. Donor: 12680

Meeting the donor

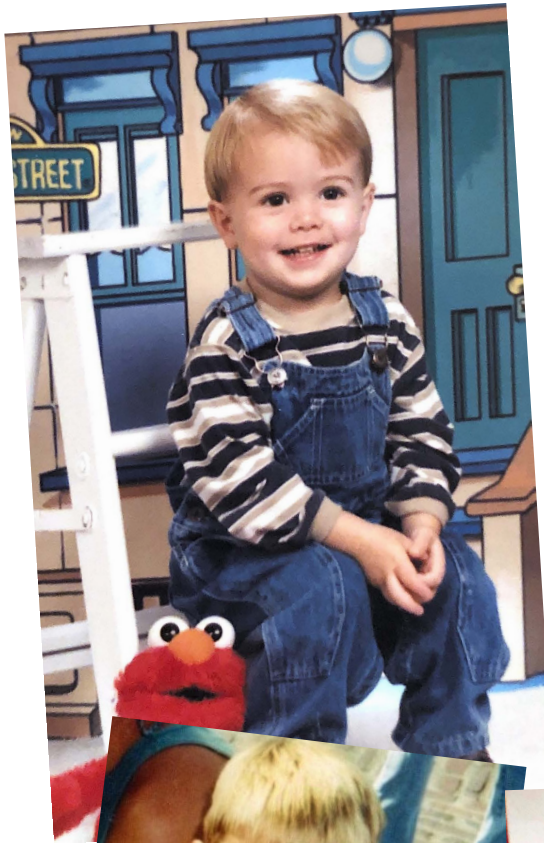

our impression

Sergio is classically handsome with large brown eyes, tan skin, and thick hair. His charming smile and gentle personality are calming and magnetic. He is fit with a medium build and well-proportioned limbs.

Sergio is very responsible, reliable, intelligent, hardworking, and caring. He enjoys his job working as a financial analyst and hopes to stay in the field long term while advancing his career. In his free time, he likes to get out into nature and go on hikes with his fiancé and French bulldog as well as participating in recreational sports. He looks forward to having children of his own in the future and is very enthusiastic about being able to help others have children as well.

In your own words

Which words describe your personality and character?

I am: content, humble, brave, competitive, stubborn.

Which sports do you like to participate in?

As an adult: flag football and basketball

Which sports did you play as a child?

As a child, all sports: American football, basketball, baseball, soccer, etc.

Which sports do you enjoy watching?

All sports, but my favorites are: basketball, American football, and baseball.

Do you play any musical instruments?

No.

What is your most memorable childhood experience?

The day that I found out I was going to be a “big” brother. I mostly grew up as an only child, but when I turned 11, my parents decided to have another child and told me the news after Track practice.

To which countries have you traveled?

None, only United States.

Describe a few of your strong sides:

I feel that I have the right balance of empathy and compassion, but still am realistic and driven. I have a good sense of humor. Physically, I have a slim-to-athletic build.

Describe a few of your weak sides:

I have been told from family that I am stubborn and like things done my way. Physically, it is tough for me to put on a lot of muscle mass and my body's homeostatis prefers to be on the slimmer side it seems.

Personal characteristics

What is your native language?

English

Math Skills/Ability:

Statistics and probability.

Mechanical Skills:

Higher than average mechanical skills, tinker with objects and am able to fix most household items

Athletic Skills:

Very skillfull in younger years (Elementary to High School), did not pursue a sport in college. Play basketball all years until aged 18. Played soccer from ages 4-12. Played American football from ages 12-14

What is your favorite sport?

American Football

What are your Hobbies/Interests/Talents:

Hiking, recreational sports, reading, data analysis

Describe your artistic ability:

Low. I have always liked to draw, but do not see myself as very artistic in comparison to others.

Do you like animals? If so, which is your favorite?

I love animals. My favorite would be a dog because of how loyal they are.

To where would you like to travel and why?

Italy and Scotland predominately to get a feel for my family's history and culture.

How would you describe your personality?

I would say what describes my personality best is content and compassionate.

What is your ultimate ambition or goal in life and how do you see yourself in twenty years?

My ultimate goal is to retire from work early. I want the financial freedom to be able to pursue interests and freelance work for non-profits and other organizations. In twenty years, I see myself hopefully close to retirement, with a few children, and married to my wife.

Donor essay

Why do you want to be a donor?

I am passionate that everyone who wants to become a parent should be able to, regardless if they are unable to physically or sexually. I am grateful that I get the opportunity to help these parents have children.

Describe your relationship with your family. How has your family shaped your values and who you are today?

I am very close with my nuclear and extended family. My mom and dad have been my “rock” and are always so supportive of my dreams and aspirations. I was shown how to work hard, but also was given unconditional love.

What makes you unique?

Critical thinking. I am able to spot and analyze details/trends at a generally quicker pace than my peers. I have been told from colleagues, college professors, and family members throughout my life that I am highly analytical (sometimes to a fault where some creative suffers). I didn't realize how analytical I was until I switched degrees in college to one that was data analysis driven, and from there I was able to really excel.

What are you most proud of and why?

I am most proud of how I am the first person in my family tree (parents, grandparents, great-grandparents) to graduate college. I am proud of this because I accomplished it not only for myself, but for my parents as well. They were not afforded the same opportunities that I was growing up, and they did everything they could to make it a possibility for me by creating a stable household with love, safety, and education as the pillars. I was so proud when I finally graduated as it made them feel like they had accomplished it too.
