Handwritten message

Dear Parents, congratulations on embarking on this incredible journey! Though I haven't had children of my own yet, I've always imagined the deep wonder, love, and purpose that come with being a parent. Knowing that my donation could help that dream come true fills me with deep pride and joy.

I admire your strength, determination, faith in the process, and your love for the life you're bringing into this world. I wish you endless laughter and beautiful, special family moments with warmth and best wishes, your donor.

Dear Child, know that your life began with so much love, hope and intention. That you are the result of a dream - cherished and committed to long before you were born.

My wish for you is that you live your life with kindness, courage and curiosity. Never stop believing in yourself and the goodness of life - even things feel uncertain or hard. May you have a life full of love and adventures,
Your donor
